Contents

Foreword by the Vice-President

PART I

BOARD OF APPEAL ACTIVITIES IN 1996

1. Introduction
2. Volume of work
2.1 Appeals filed and other proceedings before the boards of appeal
   2.1.1 Enlarged Board of Appeal
   2.1.2 Legal Board of Appeal
   2.1.3 Technical boards of appeal
   2.1.4 Protests
2.1.5 Disciplinary matters and European qualifying examination
2.2 Appeals settled
   2.2.1 Enlarged Board of Appeal
   2.2.2 Legal Board of Appeal
   2.2.3 Technical boards of appeal
   2.2.4 Protests
2.2.5 Disciplinary matters and the European qualifying examination
2.3 Appeals pending
2.4 Breakdown of appeals and oral proceedings by language
2.5 Involvement of the President of the EPO in appeal proceedings
2.6 Statements by third parties in proceedings before the Enlarged Board
3. Developments in Directorate-General 3
4. Number of staff and distribution of responsibilities
5. Contact with national courts, applicants and professional representatives
6. Information on board of appeal case law
   6.1 Publication of decisions in the Official Journal
   6.2 PALDAS full-text database
   6.3 Case law data on CD-ROM
   6.4 Headnotes and texts of decisions on microfiche
   6.5 Further publications by DG 3

PART II

BOARD OF APPEAL AND ENLARGED BOARD OF APPEAL CASE LAW 1996

I. PATENTABILITY

A. Patentable inventions

1. Computer-related inventions
2. Presentation of information
3. Medical methods
   3.1 Therapeutic methods
      3.1.1 Patentability of products with both therapeutic and non-therapeutic indications
   3.2 Diagnostic methods

B. Novelty

1. State of the art
   1.1 Issues of proof
2. Disclosed content of prior publications
   2.1 Relevant point of time
   2.2 Mistakes in a disclosure
   2.3 Comparison of technical principles
   2.4 Implicit disclosure
   2.5 Relation between disclosure and scope of protection
3. Availability to the public
3.1 The concept of "the public"
3.1.1 General principles
3.1.2 Obligation to maintain secrecy
3.2 The notion of "making available"
4. Assessment of novelty
4.1 Broad claims
4.2 Product claim with process features
5. Chemical inventions and selection inventions
5.1 Novelty of chemical compounds and groups of compounds
5.2 Selection of sub-ranges and overlapping of ranges
6. Novelty of use
6.1 Second (further) medical use - Process of manufacture of a medicament

C. Inventive step

1. Closest prior art - choice of the closest starting point
2. Technical problem
2.1 Determination of the technical problem
2.2 Reformulation of the problem
2.3 Alternative solution to a known problem
3. Skilled person
3.1 Definition
3.2 Neighbouring field
3.3 Skilled person - level of knowledge
4. Proof of inventive step
4.1 Disclosure in cited documents
4.2 Combination inventions
4.3 Biotechnology - expectation of success
4.4 Chemical compounds - structural similarity
4.5 Broad claims
4.6 Disclaimer
4.7 Examples of the denial of inventive step
4.7.1 Routine experiments
4.7.2 Incentive to try the latest product on the market
5. Secondary indicia
5.1 Bonus effect - one-way street
5.2 Competitor

II. CONDITIONS TO BE MET BY AN APPLICATION

A. Sufficiency of disclosure

1. Reproducibility without undue burden
2. Average knowledge of the skilled person
3. Biotechnology
3.1 Reproducibility of biological inventions
4. Evidence

B. Claims

1. Clarity
1.1 Text of the claims
1.1.1 Categories of claim
1.2 Exceptions to the principles
1.2.1 Admissibility of disclaimer
2. Claims supported by the description

C. Unity of invention

Conditions for assessing unity of invention

III. AMENDMENTS

A. Article 123(2) EPC
1. Content of the application as originally filed
   1.1 Disclosure in drawings
   1.2 Disclaimers
   1.3 Amendments in the description of the prior art
2. Divisional applications
3. "Tests" for the allowability of an amendment
   3.1 The "novelty test"
   3.2 The "is it essential" test
   3.3 Derivability of amendments from application as filed
4. Cross-references
5. Correction at the discretion of the EPO

B. Standard of proof for allowing amendments and corrections

IV. PRIORITY

1. Identity of invention
   1.1 Disclosure in previous application
   1.2 Limitation of scope of protection
   1.3 Enabling disclosure and support for broad claim
2. Partial and multiple priorities
   2.1 General
   2.2 Multiple priorities for one claim

V. RULES COMMON TO ALL PROCEEDINGS - GENERAL PRINCIPLES

A. The principle of the protection of legitimate expectations
   1. Obligation to draw attention to easily remediable deficiencies

B. Oral proceedings
   1. Right to oral proceedings
2. Fixing or postponing the date for oral proceedings
3. Communication under Article 11(2) RPBA

C. Right to be heard

D. Time limits

E. Re-establishment of rights

1. Department competent to decide
2. Exclusion of time limits under Article 122(5) EPC - Period of grace under Rule 85b EPC
3. Two-month time limit under Article 122(2) EPC
4. Removal of the cause of non-compliance
5. Due care on the part of the professional representative

F. Late submission

1. Rule 71a EPC
2. Examination as to relevance
3. Documents cited in the patent or the search report

G. Procedural steps

H. Withdrawal of application and surrender of patent

1. Abandonment of parts of an application or patent
1.1 Abandonment of subject-matter of the application or patent

I. Law of evidence

1. Introduction
2. Taking of evidence
2.1 Procedure
2.2 Admissibility of evidence
3. Evaluation of evidence
4. Standard of proof
5. Burden of proof

J. Professional representatives

1. Oral submissions by an accompanying person
2. General authorisations

K. Decisions of EPO departments

1. Right to a decision
2. Composition of opposition divisions
3. Suspected partiality
4. Date of decision - Completion of the internal decision-making process
5. Reasons for the decision
6. Correction of errors in decisions

L. General issues

1. Interpretation of the EPC
2. EPC and TRIPS

M. Other procedural questions

1. Register of Patents
2. Notifications to the representative

VI. PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE EPO

A. Preliminary and formalities examination
1. Accordance of a date of filing
2. Correction of applicant's name

B. Examination procedure

1. Divisional applications
   1.1 Introduction
   1.2 Time of filing of divisional applications
2. Request for oral proceedings after the issue of a Rule 51(6) EPC communication
3. Requests for amendment after completion of the proceedings
4. Correction of decision to grant

C. Opposition procedure

1. Right to be heard in opposition proceedings
   1.1 New grounds of opposition - Interpretation of Article 113(1) EPC
2. Admissibility of opposition
   2.1 Formal requirements
      2.1.1 Entitlement to file an opposition
      2.1.2 Identifiability of opponent
      2.1.3 Opposition by a professional representative
      2.1.4 Rebuttable presumption of Article 99(1) EPC
   2.2 Substantiation of the grounds of opposition
3. Legal and factual framework of opposition
   3.1 Ground on which the opposition is based 3.1.1 Legal concept of "grounds for opposition" under Article 100 EPC
      3.1.2 Meaning of a "fresh ground for opposition"
   3.2 Factual framework of opposition
      3.2.1 Substantiation of new ground for opposition
4. Admissibility of amendments in opposition proceedings
   4.1 General
   4.2 Admissibility of amendments
   4.3 Examination of amendments
D. Appeal procedure

1. Procedural status of the parties
   1.1 Intervention
      1.1.1 Intervener's rights, fees payable
2. Rights of parties under Article 107 EPC
   2.1 "Reformatio in peius"
   2.2 Extent of scrutiny in opposition appeal proceedings
      2.2.1 Extent to which the patent is contested
      2.2.2 New grounds for opposition
3. Termination of appeal proceedings
   3.1 Withdrawal of an appeal
   3.2 Withdrawal of the opposition during appeal proceedings
   3.3 Request for revocation of a patent
4. Interlocutory revision
5. Admissibility of the appeal
   5.1 Board competent to hear a case
   5.2 Form and content of appeal
6. Binding effect
   6.1 General principles
   6.2 Type of remittal
      6.2.1 Remittal for the continuation of proceedings
7. Filing of amended claims in appeal proceedings
   7.1 Reinstatement of claims in appeal proceedings
   7.2 Consideration of late-filed claims
   7.3 Non-consideration of late-filed claims
   7.4 Remittal to the department of first instance because of substantial amendments to claims
8. Reimbursement of appeal fees
   8.1 Introduction
   8.2 Substantial procedural violation
      8.2.1 Request for oral proceedings
      8.2.2 Right to be heard
8.2.3 Inadequate reasons given in the decision at first instance
8.2.4 Error of judgment by a department of first instance
8.3 Interlocutory revision

VII. THE EPO ACTING AS PCT AUTHORITY

1. The EPO acting as IPEA
   1.1 Composition of a review panel
   1.2 Additional fees - Partial reimbursement

VIII. INSTITUTIONAL MATTERS

Annex 1
Decisions delivered in 1996 and discussed in the Case Law Report for 1996

Annex 2
Cited decisions

Annex 3
Headnotes to decisions delivered in 1996 which have already been published in OJ EPO, or are scheduled for publication