yyymmdd' Date of the European Patent Bulletin on which the grant by epo was announced.

code meaning
European Patents (UK) published or amended in French or German by the EPO are treated as patents granted under the Patents Act 1977 only if a English Translation of the specification is filed with the UK Patent Office. If a translation is not filed within the prescribed period a warning is sent to the proprietor stating that the European Patent (UK) has become void. Assuming no late filing of the translation has been allowed, 1 month later the patent is treated as always having been void and it is advertised in the Official Journal (Patents).
